BERNALILLO COUNTY

BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS

ADMINISTRATIVE RESOLUTION NO.

STRENGTHENING BERNALILLO COUNTY’S NON-DISCRIMINATION POLICIES 1 BY SAFEGUARDING SENSITIVE INFORMATION, ESTABLISHING A RECORDS 2 POLICY, ENSURING THAT COUNTY RESOURCES ARE NOT USED TO ASSIST IN 3 THE ENFORCEMENT OF FEDERAL IMMIGRATION LAWS, AND ESTABLISHING 4 A POLICY LIMITING ACCESS TO COUNTY OWNED AND OPERATED NON-PUBLIC PROPERTY 6 7 WHEREAS, recent Presidential executive orders and actions aim to criminalize, 8

target, detain, and deport immigrants, including hardworking New Mexicans. 9

WHEREAS, this has resulted in an uptick of Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) activity in Albuquerque and Bernalillo County, targeting people in their homes, 11

workplaces, and public institutions such our court systems, eroding trust in our local 12 governments, undermining community policing, disrupting our local economy, resulting in 13

family separation, and plunging families into poverty, 14

WHEREAS, Bernalillo County has a proud legacy of passing non-discrimination 15 policies that are conducive to immigrant integration and in that spirit passed resolution AR 27- 16 to Enforce Federal Immigration Laws” that states that, “The County reaffirms that no County resources will be used to identify and apprehend persons solely based on their immigration status”; and

WHEREAS, AR 2017-22 strengthened Bernalillo County’s status as “immigrant-friendly” and affirmed that “no municipal resources shall be used, including members of the Bernalillo County Sheriff’s Department, to identify individual’s immigration status or apprehend persons on the sole basis of status, unless otherwise required by law to do so”; and

CONTINUATION PAGE 2, ADMINISTRATIVE RESOLUTION AR 2019-

WHEREAS, AR 2017-22 affirms that “the Tenth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States recognizes the sovereign status of the states and their political subdivisions and precludes the federal government from attempting to compel state and local governments, either directly or by their use of threats to withhold federal funding, to assist the federal government in enforcing federal laws, including immigrations laws”; and

WHEREAS, as of this date, the courts have consistently rejected the Department of Justice’s conditions on federal grants that would have required states and localities to assist with the enforcement of federal immigration laws; and

WHEREAS, AR 2017-22 affirms that “the County Commission believes in the human dignity of all Bernalillo County residents, regardless of immigration status, and recognizes the importance of immigrants’ many contributions to the social, cultural, intellectual, and economic fabric of the County; and"

WHEREAS, there are hundreds of jurisdictions across the nation that limit assistance with federal immigration enforcement and since the beginning of 2017, there has been an explosion of such policies enacted across the nation, recognizing the strong governmental interest in building healthier relationships with the communities they are sworn to protect; and

WHEREAS, courts across the nation have consistently sided with communities that refuse to detain immigrants, sending the clear message that policies limiting assistance with federal immigration enforcement are legal; and

WHEREAS, according to the Immigrant Legal Resource Center (ILRC), as of January 2019, twenty federal court decisions in the nine lawsuits over federal funding sided with "sanctuary" cities and states against the Trump administration, ruling that adding WHEREAS, according to ILRC as of 2017 there were 169 counties that restrict notification, to ICE about release dates or other information, 117 counties limit ICE access to local jails and/or ICE interrogations of detainees, and 119 counties prohibit inquiries into immigration status and/or place of birth; and

WHEREAS, according to the same publication, at least 120 communities have enacted policies which limit assistance with the enforcement of federal immigration law since Trump took office and 28 states have at least one jurisdiction that enacted such policies in just the last two years; and

WHEREAS, a poll released by Latino Decisions on February 13, 2019 revealed strong and consistent support among a majority of registered voters of New Mexico for rational and humane approaches to immigration policy, across many demographics, largely because many New Mexicans have a personal connection to the undocumented community; and
WHEREAS, the Latino Decisions poll indicates that a large majority of the New Mexico electorate believes that New Mexico's leaders should do more to protect immigrant residents from deportation and should not spend local resources aiding ICE in its deportation efforts; and

WHEREAS, 70% registered voters in New Mexico believe in the passage of laws to safeguard New Mexican's sensitive personal information, including information about a person's country of origin, except as otherwise required by federal law or to comply with an order of the court; and

WHEREAS, a majority of New Mexican registered voters support policies that ensure that immigrant families in New Mexico have equal access to non-discriminatory treatment by the state's criminal justice system, including not being turned over to ICE before a trial or Conviction.

NOW, THEREFORE, be it resolved by the Board of County Commissioners, the governing body of the County of Bernalillo, adopts the following policy:

1. SENSITIVE INFORMATION POLICY  A. County agencies, departments, officers, employees, or agents shall not disclose any sensitive information about any person which came into the employee’s possession during the course and scope of that employee’s work for the County of Bernalillo, except in order to provide a County service, carry out a function of 7 County government, to assist the Judicial branch of our State, in response to a written request for records under the New Mexico Inspection of Public Records Act where such information is not otherwise exempted, (§§14-2-1 et seq. NMSA 1978), or as otherwise compelled by law. For purposes of this section, sensitive personal information means: social security number or individual tax identification number or lack of such numbers, an inmate’s custody release date, a person’s place and date of birth, a person’s status as a recipient of public assistance or as a crime victim, a person’s home or work address, a person’s employment information, a person’s sexual orientation, gender identity, physical or mental disability, religion, or national origin. In addition to the exceptions listed above, the custody release date for an inmate of the Metropolitan Detention Center may also be released in response to a request from the inmate’s attorney, bondsman, or family member.

2. RECORDS POLICY: No Bernalillo County employee, or any third party on its behalf, shall make or initiate any inquiry regarding the immigration status, citizenship, country of origin/place of birth, or nationality of an individual, except as required by law, including, without limitation, to determine eligibility for a federal benefit or program administered by the County.

3. USE OF RESOURCES Bernalillo County officers, employees, and agents shall not use County resources, including but not limited to moneys, equipment, technology, personnel, or County facilities, to assist in or otherwise facilitate the enforcement of federal immigration law. The prohibition set forth in this Section shall include but is not limited to: identifying, investigating, apprehension, arresting, detaining, or continuing to detain a person solely on the individual’s immigration status or the belief that the person has committed a violation of immigration law.

4. ACCESS TO COUNTY OWNED AND OPERATED NON-PUBLIC PROPERTY Bernalillo County shall refuse access to all non-public areas of their property and facilities by federal immigration agents, for the purpose of enforcing federal immigration law, who do not present a judicial warrant (not an administrative warrant) issued specifically requiring provision of such access.

DONE, this 26th day of February, 2019.
Maggie Hart Stebbins, Chair
O’Malley, Vice Chair
Quezada, Member
Lonnie C. Talbert,
Member
Charlene E. Pyskoty, Member

APPROVED AS TO FORM:

W. Ken Martinez, County Attorney

ATTEST:

Linda Stover, County Clerk